

Online training sewing technology 2021

Interactive, live and digital online trainings – customized to your needs!

Digital change is constantly creating new opportunities. With our live online trainings we are able to support you in an efficient and convenient way.

Whether you need assistance with machine setups, special mechanical adjustments or technician training. Just tell us which topics you would like to have trainings on. We will arrange the individual training contents accordingly and accompany you with our team of professionals.

Your benefits

Increase your know-how: Benefit from individual training contents and direct communication with our experienced team of specialists in German or English language

Stay flexible: We arrange the meetings according to your time schedule (spread of training over several sessions/days is possible)

Save time and money: No need to schedule a time consuming business trip
